

Short-term

Assignment duration

Short-term assignments are designed to adapt to your evolving operational needs and contexts. They provide opportunities for volunteers to serve in limited-duration roles.

General Info

- For national assignments, across all categories
- Duration: Between 1-3 months
- Work full- or part-time
- Work from UN premises or remotely
- Receive reduced benefits and entitlements

About Us

United Nations Volunteers (UNV) contributes to global peace and development through volunteerism. We work with the UN to integrate qualified, motivated and well-supported UN Volunteers into development programmes and to promote the value and recognition of volunteerism.

Our volunteers bring diversity, innovation, and a strong community focus to complement the UN workforce.

Explore the value of short-term assignments

Short-term assignments provide rapid support opportunities for time-bound needs. They allow agile contributions to quickly integrate added capacity into teams and deliver results within a defined period.

Short-term assignments are best for:

- Emergency response and surge support
- Project kick-offs or wrap-ups
- Short-duration campaigns or events

Benefits and entitlements

We encourage broad and inclusive participation, and as such ensure a variety of benefits to support a basic standard of living for UN Volunteers.

Monthly living allowance
<https://app.unv.org/calculator>

Life, disability and accident insurance

Learning opportunities

See more in our UNV Conditions of Service

Unlock your organization's potential with UNV

Benefit from:

- A diverse range of UN Volunteer categories and flexible combinations
- Tailored talent solutions designed to meet your team's specific needs
- Access to top-matching candidates from our global Talent Pool
- The transformative power of volunteerism to achieve your mission
- A trusted legal framework (Unified Conditions of Service)
- Expert support from the UNV team for seamless contract management —from onboarding to separation

Join forces with UNV to unlock your organization's potential. Contact us today to explore how we can support your organization's success.

Contacts

Website (LINK TO REGIONAL PAGE)

Email

UVP links

Follow us on social media:

